

The 'Future Wimbledonians' School Competition 2014

The competition

Entry Flyers with the entry form are available at the Love Wimbledon Information Desk, Centre Court Shopping Centre, upper-mall outside H&M. Entry flyers are also on the lovewimbledon.org and can be printed off.

Entrants are required to provide their ideas in pictures or another exciting media but they must be on either an A3 or A4 piece of paper. You can enter as an individual or through your school (if you are the overall winner your school receives the £1000 prize and you receive an individual prize from a Wimbledon Business).

The entries should be posted into the Love Wimbledon Postbox next to the Love Wimbledon Information Desk in Centre Court, upper-mall.

The competition is open from 8th September 2014 and closes on 27th October 2014.

Entries

Only entries submitted with the official entry form on the back and posted into our Love Wimbledon Postbox at the Love Wimbledon Desk, in Centre Court will be accepted. The competition entry form should be stuck on the back of the A4 or A3 entry and fully completed. Any entries without the form will not be put forward. The competition posting box will be open from 8th Sept - 27th October 2014. Winners for each key stage category will receive a prize. You must enter the appropriate category for your key stage (there are three categories)

The categories

There are three entry categories, which have been divided by school key stages.

Category 1: Key stage one and two

Category 2: Key stage three and four

Category 3: Key stage five

The Judging

Judges are made up of local businesses and groups including Lauristons estate agents, Elliott Wood engineers, The Wimbledon Society and the Civic Forum. Entries will be put forward to the panel of judges within 2 weeks of the closing date.

Should Love Wimbledon be unable to contact the winners, via the details submitted on the entry form, an alternative winner will be announced.

The family names and the school of the winners will be made available on our Facebook and Twitter pages. The entrants must be aged 4-18 and they must have permission from their Guardians.

Participants must be a UK, Isle of Man or Channel Islands resident.

Prizes

Entries can be submitted per child, however only one prize per household can be won. Entries are not permitted from employees of Love Wimbledon and Merton Chamber of Commerce or their families. There will be no cash alternative. Each winner will be referred to the individual sponsor for relevant terms and conditions pertinent to the prize.

Winner's prizes will be presented at a prize giving or can be collected from the Love Wimbledon desk during opening times if winners are unable to attend. The promoters reserve the right to cancel or postpone the competition or substitute a prize.
